PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I have 22 years of commercial construction experience, including positions ranging from being a field laborer to a Sr. Vice President. I have the effective ability to manage projects successfully, and am able to make entire companies successful. Profitability has dramatically increased at each of my employers under my leadership; while simultaneously retaining new and existing clients, enforcing safety within the workplace, and successfully managing vendor relations. I am currently seeking to further my career at an executive level and expand my horizons to new challenges.
