

Baxter Johnson

305-607-3801 Baxter.johnson014@gmail.com 1905 NW 87 Street Miami, FL 33147

Objective

Seeking a construction engineering or managing position that will utilize exceptional physical labor and engineering skills to assist all trades on the job site. Secure a responsible career opportunity to fully utilize my training and skills, while making a significant contribution to success of a company.

Experience

DECK HAND, SEA FAIR , MIAMI,FL – 08/2012 - 12/2016

Maintain the vessel by many positions to keep the performance at its highest peak on running routinely. Painting around the vessel, cleaning areas properly and checking responsible areas of traffic. Using navigational skills to ensure what days the vessel can go out on sea. Performing tours about the yacht to guest.

CARPENTER, CONCRETE JUNGLE – 12/2017 - 06/2019

Installing structures and fixtures, such as windows and ceiling fans. Coordinating a team to properly install the framework of residential buildings. Inspecting and replacing damage framework or other structures the customer desires. Reading and interpreting construction drawings.

CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS FIELD TECHNICIAN , GCES ENGINEERING SERVICE – 08/2019 - PRESENT

Performing concrete testing for the different types of forms of concrete pouring. Inhibiting the abilities to record the data of the results of various projects. Inspecting concrete footers , slabs , trench piping utilities. Handling reports and inspection sheets to give to the clients. Managing on field Boring performance, clearing areas and make sure its conducted an a safely process.

Education

Miami Dade College - Associate of Arts Degree in Nursing - 2016

Florida International University - Bachelors of Science Degree in Construction Management - 2018 - 2021

Skills

Problem Solving & Creativity, Teamwork Skills, Planning and Organizing, Time Management, Microsoft Office, Mathmatical Problem Solving

